11) The Deputy Commissioner Chitaldrug District has forwarded a copy of letter No A & C 57/47-48 dated the 24th May 1948 received from the Municipal Commissioner Davangere City Mkty on the subject and requests sanction of Govt to the proposals mentioned therein, on the ground that the proposals made already have nothing to do with the increase of establishment for the Davangere City Mkty, which is separately dealt with and that the cases recommended relate to the period from 1-1-47 for the existing clerical staff. There are two proposals for which sanction is now sought-

(1) to revise the scales of 3 clerks viz Sri M. Sreenivasa Rao, Sreenivasa Rao, Sreenivasa Rao (Key H included) of M Sreenivasa Rao Collector Clerk from 20-1-25 to 25-1-30-1-40 with effect from 14th August 1946 up to 1-1-47 on an initial pay of Rs 40 therein the reason urged being that the scale of the last grade clerks in town Municipality from 25-1-30 to Rs 25-1-30-1-40 as

(Reg A on back file) per G.O. No. L 2593-604/MC 124-46-1 dated the 14th/16th August 1946, and

J+K) (11) to further revise the scales of pay of the above 3 clerks and also certain others from 1-1-47 based on the higher scales sanctioned for Govt employees as per Pay Commission's recommendations

12) Consequent on the conversion of the Devanpore Town Municipality into a City Municipality from 1-1-48 it was suggested to the Municipal Commissioner that all proposals for revision of scales of pay for the existing staff and also additional staff as required may be dealt with together to know the exact financial implications in respect of the establishment of the Municipality. The Municipal Commissioner submitted his proposals vide his letter dated ~~[illegible]~~ the increased staff

Revision of the scales of pay of the employees of the Davangere Mfg and they are being dealt with separately It states that the revision of the scales of pay of the existing staff may be considered independently and orders passed thereon The proposals mentioned in para 11 (I) above and in para 11 (II) as set forth in the proforma statement dated 24th May 1948 of the Mill Comm Davangere require the sanction of Govt in the present file The statements are according to the standing orders of Govt except in respect of the employees submitted for orders in the cases of the

The date of the original G.O. of 16 8 46 was, it is reported Rs 29, Rs 34 & Rs 29 respectively. The DC has recommended the maximum pay of the scale of Rs 25-1-30-1-40 from 16-8-46 on account of their long service of 25, 26 & 20 years past in the grade.

HOR 29/7/48

2) The proposals for revision result in an extra cost of Rs 3862-12-0 p.a. against one Revenue Inspector of the lower grade, two are proposed - one on the higher grade and the other on the lower grade - though it is said these proposals relate only to the existing establishment.

For 30/7/48

2) The proposals contained in the proposed statement (Flag K) for revising the scale of pay of the existing establishment of the Darrangpore Agency may be approved omitting the Revenue Inspector on Rs 60-5-90-6-150 as there is no such post now one Revenue Inspector on Rs 40-2-50-3-80 will be appointed as against one on revised Rs 40-2-50-3-80 and one on revised Rs 40-2-50-3-80 the revised scales of pay proposed in respect of the other posts are in conformity with those sanctioned in respect of the employees of other Depts

for Hence they may be approved as in Flag K

24) The allocation statement Flag J)
shows the pay fixed in respect of the Head clerk, senior clerk, the new inspection typist clerk according to the revised scales referred to in the proposed statement. This has been certified to by the Municipal Commissioner Dharwar city only as being in order clerks II Srinivasan, Narayanarao & M Srinivasan (retired) can get only 4 increments in the revised scales of pay (40-2-50-3-80) raising their pay to Rs 48/- & M each from 1/1/47
